Harassment Procedure flowchart for Students

College Procedure
If the harassment arises solely in the college environment or is by a member of college staff, please follow the college's procedures.

Criminal misconduct
If a criminal offence has been committed, this Procedure or parts of this Procedure may not be appropriate. This would include, but not limited to, hate crime, serious assault or threat of serious assault. The Director of Student Welfare and Support Services or the Proctors will decide whether this Procedure is applicable, having regard to all relevant circumstances including any police involvement. Information on the University's Sexual Harassment and Violence Support Service can be found here: www.ox.ac.uk/students/welfare/supportservice

IF YOU FEEL YOU HAVE BEEN HARASSED, SPEAK TO ONE OF THE FOLLOWING PEOPLE:
- Member of your college Welfare Team
- Peer Supporter
- Local Harassment Advisor or Harassment Line
- Director of Graduate Studies
- Counselling Service
- Oxford SU Student Advice

You can speak to the above people at any time during this process

Complaint against a student

- Initial action
  If it is safe to do so and you feel able, write to or tell the person that you are unhappy with their behaviour. You can talk through what you might write / say with one of the above contacts.

- Contact the Director of Student Welfare and Support Services' Office
  Director of Student Welfare and Support Services' Office will give you advice and help you make a decision on your next step. If necessary they will refer you to an appropriate support service. The Director may explore mediation or conciliation if both parties are students.

- Submit a written complaint to the Proctors.
  The Proctors will normally seek your consent to refer you to the Director of Student Welfare and Support Services' Office, if you have not already contacted them, so that you can be offered appropriate support from a trained member of staff.

- The Proctors will inform the alleged harasser of the basis of the complaint. Witness statements and evidence will be collected.

- Both parties will be informed in writing of the conclusion of the investigation, the action the Proctors decide to take and the reason for this action. The Director of Student Welfare and Support Services' Office will also be informed to ensure the appropriate support is put in place.

- Possible appeal to OIA

Complaint against a member of University Staff

- Initial action
  If it is safe to do so and you feel able, write to or tell the person that you are unhappy with their behaviour. You can talk through what you might write / say with one of the above contacts.

- Contact the Director of Student Welfare and Support Services' Office
